FOUND! The Story of the Tracer of LOST ARTICLES

Of course a "lost" ad is unable to talk, yet it tells more than could any other medium in Honolulu that might be employed to search for a lost article.

In the present instance, when a lady lost her watch, she promptly telephoned a "lost" ad to The Star-Bulletin, thereby engaging the services of the column in The Star-Bulletin often referred to as the "tracer of lost articles."

The man who found the watch, like all progressive merchants, is a Star-Bulletin reader. He turned to the "Lost and Found" column, read the ad reproduced above, and the lady's watch was returned—the simple, easy, safe and inexpensive way which you have of recovering lost articles—The Star-Bulletin want ad way.
